

June 29, 2020

If you operate a business in the Boundary region and need guidance to strengthen your business, the Boundary Business Advisor Program can assist you by providing free one on one, confidential advice, recommendations and referrals to help you make important decisions about your business.

A professional advisor can assist you by providing support and advice in the following areas:

- Navigating government supports available
- Human Resources
- Financials/cash flow planning
- Transitioning your business
- Business Planning
- Succession Planning
- Transitioning how you do business
- and more...

Complete our easy intake application online at www.boundarycf.com (available July 30th), or if you prefer paper download the application, and e-mail us a completed signed copy to info@boundarycf.com. Once we receive your application form, an advisor will be in touch to conduct a more indepth assessment and discuss your needs.

You must be willing to openly discuss your business situation, disclose any critical issues and share confidential business financial information.

Funding is limited, therefore all applications will be on a first come first serve basis and priority will be given to those businesses significantly impacted by the freshet event of May 2018 and COVID-19.

"We gratefully acknowledge the financial support of the Province of British Columbia"